

Name:

Grade: Second

Subject: Final Project

Standard	Unsatisfactory	Partially Proficient	Proficient	Advanced
Presentation	Students have limited understanding of the components of their glog.	Students can explain some of the components of their glog.	Students explain the components of their glog thoroughly.	Students explain the components of their glog thoroughly in an innovative manner including audience participation.
Technology	Students conduct limited research.	Students use some critical thinking skills to conduct research.	Students use critical thinking skills to conduct research and completed all requirements of the glog using at least one of the following: links, images, or photos.	Students use critical thinking skills to conduct research and completed all requirements of the glog using links, images, and photos.
Economics	Students demonstrate limited understanding of how the scarcity of resources affects choices people make.	Students demonstrate some understanding of how the scarcity of resources affects choices people make.	Students explain how the scarcity of resources affects choices people make.	Students explain many ways of how the scarcity of resources affects choices people make.
Civics	Students show limited understanding Students how responsible community members advocate for their beliefs.	Students show some understanding of how responsible community members advocate for their beliefs.	Students can explain how responsible community members advocate for their beliefs.	Students can explain multiple ways that responsible community members advocate for their beliefs.